RADAM - OVERVIEW - PROGRAM - REVERSE MORTGAGE THINK TANK - LENDERS DEBATE

Radam is a national reverse mortgage conference held yearly. The event draws reverse mortgage professionals from across the country. The conference is usually held in the State of Florida and spans for 3 days.

The Radam conference was first organized about 8 years ago to facilitate exchange of ideas and information among reverse mortgage practitioners. Presently it is being organized and hosted by the Association of Reverse Mortgage Professionals in collaboration with other state and national reverse mortgage associations. The Radam reverse mortgage conference is thus presently the largest event in the reverse mortgage calendar. It attracts reverse mortgage professional from all over the country.

The Radam conference offers food, lodging as well as other fun and social activities. The professionals thus find the conference both educative as well as entertaining. The conference is only open to certified reverse mortgage practitioners as well as some notable academicians in reverse mortgage. For more information on the scheduled events of the conference, please visit relevant page.

Among the highlights of the Radam conference is the Think Tank Session. This is a very enlightening program designed to be educative and very informative. This part of the Radam conference involves a number of seasoned reverse mortgage experts shedding light and information on various aspects of the industry. For more information about the Think Tank session, please visit the appropriate page of this website.

The Lender's Debate is a part of the conference that is eagerly anticipated. During the debate, seasoned and qualified reverse mortgage professionals take variant sides of a reverse mortgage topic and take turns on stage to argue for or against. The debate is usually based on different approaches to reverse mortgage methodology. The debate offers the audience an opportunity to learn and gather bits of useful information on reverse mortgages. For more information on Lender's Debate, please visit the appropriate page.
