Workshop in Halle (Saale) • 01.12.2026 • 9 am – 5 pm PATHWAY TO IMPACT

What impact would you like to create with your research? By looking at the golden circle framework, this workshop focuses on the WHY behind your work. With a view to the Sustainable Development Goals you will think about the potential areas of impact you can create with your own research. You will also reflect about user groups and the network of stakeholders that surround you and your research. Brainstorm potential use cases and help each other to take your ideas to the next level.

Who we are

Young Entrepreneurs in Science is an interactive workshop programme for master's students, PhDs and postdocs to help you ignite your entrepreneurial spirit! Together with your peers, you will learn methods and skills to realise your innovative potential.

Admission is free and no previous knowledge is required.

Workshop Goals

- Learn about the golden circle and the concepts of purpose and impact
- Think about potential areas of impact that your research can contribute to
- Reflect about the potential of your own research topic/idea
- Develop or extend potential use cases based on your research & network
